Dear Friends,

With these words, I bring to a close my Bulletin “conversation” which I long ago titled “From Where I Stand.” Actually that was the title I borrowed forty years ago from one of my beloved rabbinic mentors, Baltimore’s Rabbi Abraham D. Shaw. In 1932, Rabbi Shaw had titled his column, “From Where I Stand.” In the 1950’s and 60’s our family never failed to read his every word in the Temple Oheb Shalom Bulletin. His retirement in 1976 offered the opportunity to appropriate the name for my own column in Macon’s Temple Beth Israel’s Bulletin and Rabbi Shaw was delighted.

Forty years is a pretty good run for any Rabbi’s column, don’t you agree? Have you been a reader of this monthly conversation with your rabbi? Actually for a few years it was a bi-weekly column as for years we sent two bulletins a month. I have occasionally used “From Where I Stand” as a PR vehicle to urge your participation at a given event: guest speakers, community wide occasions, concerts, and the like. A few times it was a brazen solicitation of your support and generosity for major Temple financial campaigns – building and rebuilding efforts as well as endowment campaigns.

Mostly however, my bulletin conversation has intended to share my personal thoughts with you on a wide array of subjects. A new take on Jewish Holy Days, festivals and civic holidays to be sure, but also highly personal passages in my life and that of our family. Actually, it occurs to me that I was writing a blog before the word even came into being.

You have all been thoroughly welcomed to life in my boyhood home of Glen Burnie, Maryland. So much so that many of you in your travels have sent me photos of the Maryland highway signs pointing toward Glen Burnie exits!

“From Where I Stand” has introduced you to our newborn grandchildren upon their birth and to our hopes and dreams for them. You have been warmly invited to Jennifer and Debra’s B’not Mitzvah and “From Where I Stand” also has shared our grief on the passing of our precious parents and dearest lifelong friends. From the Joyous Wedding to the wrenching pain of Katrina – it’s all been shared. Sometimes the column was comprised of a single photo and occasionally centered on a quote from a favorite Biblical book, secular poet or scientific essayist.

It has been a sacred privilege to occupy this prime real estate in the Temple Sinai Bulletin for these 29 years. Yes it has been a terrific run, but be assured that Andrea and I are pleased to join all of you in joyously welcoming Matthew and Leah, and their four daughters to our Temple family. And that’s the most important point to take along with you now, “From Where I Stand.”

We make way for Rabbi Matthew Reimer’s column as new bonds of caring and sharing are initiated. Matt, the prime spot on the front page is now all yours, but hey, I’ll still be keeping my reserved parking space at the Palmer Avenue entrance! Andrea and I join all of our Sinai family in joyously welcoming the Reimer family into our hearts and to the Temple Sinai family.

Faithfully yours,
Edward Paul Cohn
Summer Education Update

O ur Religious and Hebrew Schools both concluded in early May and we had a very successful year! Our year included many wonderful events including our Family Shabbat(s), Sukkot Under the Stars, Simchat Torah, ‘Walking, Talking, Torah’, the 8th/9th grade Civil Rights trip to Birmingham, several family programs for K-3rd graders and 4th-6th graders, a field trip to Hillel for our 3rd-5th graders, Esther -The Force Awakens Purim play and celebration, The Passover Experience and so much more! Our partnership with The Choice Foundation giving item donations this year instead of money donations increased empathy, meaning and awareness in Tzedakah contributions for our students. Our T’filah Band and Choir participated in five Shabbat and Holiday services this year and we will be adding more students and have a new choir leader in the coming year. Our Hebrew School students led four Family Shabbat services this year, building not only their skills, but also their confidence and leadership experiences. Over the summer I will be attending two Educator conferences and taking many classes at each as well as meeting with a consultant to continue growing our schools both in content and engagement for all of our students. We will be focused specifically on 4th-9th grades in the Religious School and working on raising classroom engagement and culling out opportunities for high quality hands-on projects to reinforce the lessons in each grade. We will also be working through the Hebrew School curriculum, Sr. T’filah, as well as the Bar/Bat Mitzvah experience, all in an effort to be the best that we can be. I also look forward to spending a week at Jacobs camp with our wonderful campers!

Temple Sinai parents have all received the year-end report cards for their children in both Religious and Hebrew School. Parents of our 3rd-7th graders have received the links to our Hebrew practice packets and the prayers on Sound cloud. Our 1st and 2nd years students require 10 minutes twice a week, and our 3rd and 4th year students require 20 minutes twice a week in order to retain the knowledge that they learned this school year. The links can also be found on our Temple Sinai website under Education/Hebrew School resources. Registration for the coming year can also be found on our website under Education/Religious School or Hebrew School and all of these links have been emailed to our parents. Our 2016-17 Bar/Bat Mitzvah students have already begun summer Hebrew classes and are doing great!

I sincerely thank the Chair of our Education committee, Michael Kirschman as well as our President, Board, Rabbi, Cantor, Executive Director and our wonderful office, custodial & teaching staff for an incredible year! As always, if anyone has questions or comments, please feel free to contact me anytime! AnnZKientz@gmail.com.
