Second Harvest Food Bank Collection & Social Justice Fund

This year, Temple Sinai will continue our tradition of collecting donations for the Second Harvest Food Bank. During Rosh Hashanah services, ushers will hand out bags that families can use to return non-perishable items to the Temple for distribution to the Second Harvest food bank. Of course, we also welcome donations to the Temple Social Justice Fund, Israel Emergency Fund, and other worthy causes.

High Holy Days Handicap Parking

During services, the Palmer Street driveway will be reserved for our members with disabilities. No other cars will be permitted to park there during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services. Your consideration and cooperation are greatly appreciated.

High Holy Days Parking

Loyola University has made the parking garage on West Road available for Temple Sinai members on Erev Rosh Hashanah and Kol Nidre. The parking garage will not be available on Rosh Hashanah day or Yom Kippur Day.

The parking garage is located on West Road behind Holy Name Church (PG on the map below). Please respect the “Reserved” signs.
