Together in the New Year

"HINEI MAH TOV U'MAH NAIM SHEVET ACHIM GAM YACHAD"

"Behold how good and how pleasant it is
When we all come together" (Psalm 133:1)

We often begin Shabbat Services, as well as Religious School on Sunday mornings, singing these words that come from Psalms. HINEI MAH TOV – how good it truly is to come together. And I especially enjoy when we come together to form a KEHILLAH KEDOSHAH, a holy community, right here at Temple.

I know I have felt that way throughout the month of August. I enjoy hosting Summer Union Shabbat Services in our beautiful sanctuary and chapel, and bringing people together in our House of Worship. I felt that way during our "Welcome Back Events" last month and at kickoff events at the beginning of the school year.

But more than any other time of year, I feel this at our High Holy Days. How good and how pleasant it is – how wonderful and amazing and special it truly is – when we come together, sit together, pray together, give thanks together, hope together, celebrate together, meet and greet together, and share together at the start of the New Year.

We Jews need each other. We need community. We need Temple Sinai. We need you. We need the strength that comes when we unite as a congregation and Temple family and community. At this sacred season, there is power and warmth that comes from being together: seeing each other, praying for each other, strengthening each other.

It is one of my favorite parts of Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur. I love seeing so many people uniting in our sanctuary and Temple building: greeting each other, meeting people, catching up, wishing each other L'shanah Tovah. Some have been doing this together here at Temple Sinai for many years, for many decades, for several generations. Others have joined us more recently or are experiencing Temple Sinai for their first time. Whatever the case, we are so happy and proud that you will be with us so that we may start the New Year 5786 together.

Rabbi Daniel M. Sherman

I believe this is even more important this year. We really need to come together right now and to feel the strength and love of community. With so many divisions in our communities, city, state, and country – it is good to find reasons to come together. With all that the Jewish people is facing – the steep rise in anti-semitism and hate and violence that affects us in many ways – we need to come together. It is important for us to come together in support of the people of Israel, even if we don't understand or agree with everything that is happening there. We will add our voices to the prayers for a better New Year for Israel, for the people of Gaza, and for the entire region.

It is hard to believe that we will soon mark the second anniversary of October 7, 2023. Hostages are still missing; families continue to mourn. We pray that all the hostages still alive and the bodies of those who have been killed will be returned home now. We hope that a path to peace will become real, that soldiers will be safe, and that those who are starving and in pain will receive the help they need.

As the New Year is almost here, I hope that you will take some time to prepare: review this past year and make plans for the new year. Hope. Pray. Seek and grant forgiveness. Be better. Be kind. Please know that you are an important part of our Temple Sinai congregation and community. Join us as we come together to strengthen one another and work to make this a good new year.

From all of us at Temple Sinai: from me and my family, Cantor Garfein, Rabbi Cohn, Cantor Colman, Jenn Daley, our leadership, our staff, and all the wonderful people who make up this blessed congregation – L'SHANAH TOVAH TIKATEIVU: may you be inscribed in the Book of Life for a good, healthy, and sweet New Year.

Cantor's Corner

Dear Temple Sinai Family,

This is a D'var Torah I gave back at the beginning of August. I hope it resonates with each of you, as it discusses teshuvah, that is, forgiveness and return, alongside gratitude.

I, along with my family, just spent the better part of a week at our house at the Jersey Shore. I am sure you're thinking, how great to get out of the extreme summer heat of New Orleans and spend a few days near the Atlantic Ocean?! In theory, it does sound great, but this trip was out of necessity to prepare our Jersey house for new tenants. You see, as many of you already know, two years ago, we left NJ for New Orleans, and left a lot of "stuff" behind. So now that the tenants moved out, it was time to go back to Jersey and deal with the "stuff."

I am not going to lie, but it was not only physically challenging, but emotionally as well. You see, our Jersey house was my late husband's home since he was five years old. I have been going to that house since I was in my late 20s, and my children have been going there since birth. During COVID, our family moved into that home when Manhattan became a hotbed, and our apartment living felt confining. My then-new husband, Alexander, helped make the Jersey house livable by single-handedly cleaning out both the attic and basement of decades of stuff from my late father-in-law and his family. Our sweet, pink colored Cape Cod (much to my children's chagrin) was our haven during that challenging time.

In the first Torah portion of the Book of Dvarim (Deuteronomy), Moses opens his final address by revisiting forty years of Israel's journey—failures, fears, rebellions, and growth. He is, in effect, unpacking the past, opening old "boxes," so to speak, of memory and confronting what's been stored away.

Cleaning out physical things—boxes in a closet, papers in a drawer, clothes long unworn—can feel strikingly similar:

- We come across items that remind us of mistakes, or versions of ourselves we've outgrown. Items we don't even understand why they were kept!
- We also find things we forgot, good and bad—just like Moses recalls both sins and blessings.
- We choose what to keep and what to release. Not everything deserves to move forward with us.

Just like Moses is helping the Israelites prepare to cross into the Promised Land, cleaning out our belongings is a symbolic way of preparing to step into a new stage of life—freer, lighter, more intentional.

Cantor Rebecca Garfein

"Sometimes, teshuvah (return/repair) begins not only with prayer, but also with a trash bag."

Moses begins his final words to the Israelites not with new laws, but with a review of the past—the mistakes, the detours, the unnecessary weight they've carried.

He names places they got stuck. He brings up old arguments. He reminds them of the times they refused to listen. Why bring all this up now?

Because, before they can enter the Land of Promise, they must take out the trash!

Literally and spiritually, trash is what we no longer need, be it physical or metaphorical, but still hold on to—resentments, guilt, fear, pride, old narratives about ourselves.

The Israelites couldn't carry those with them into the next chapter. Neither can we.

When we clean out a drawer or haul a heavy bag or piece of furniture to the curb, we're doing more than organizing. We're acknowledging the past, thanking it for what it taught us, and letting it go.

Sometimes, teshuvah (return/repair) begins not only with prayer, but also with a trash bag. What's one "item" you've been carrying—emotionally, spiritually, or even physically—that you know it's time to throw out?

Name it. Bless it.

Thank it. and finally...Let it go.

Kein yehi ratson, may it be G-d's will, but first may it be ours.

Alexander, Max, Jake, and the puppies join me in wishing you and yours a sweet, healthy New Year and G'mar Tov, literally "A Good Sealing."

Cantor Rebecca Garfein, D.M.

SILENT FILM ENSEMBLE SPECTACULAR

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 26 | 12:15PM
AT TEMPLE SINAI

Following the brunch honoring our Past Presidents, please join us to watch the film East and West accompanied by live original music composed and performed by world-renowned klezmer violinist Alicia Svigals and celebrated silent film pianist Donald Sosin.

The film, EAST AND WEST (84 min), is a 1923 Austrian comedy. Molly Picon, a feisty young New Yorker, goes to a family wedding in Europe and gets into all kinds of mischief, coaxing the Yeshiva boys to dance the Shimmy, and acting in a fake wedding to a nebbish Talmudic student, which turns out to have some serious consequences.

L'Shanah Tovah!

How can it already be time for the High Holy Days? As I begin my 5th year at Temple Sinai, I am so excited about seeing everyone again during this season. It is always such a special time to watch our Sinai community come together -- the embraces of multi-generations of family, long-time friends, and even new friends -- observing the warm and welcoming atmosphere of our Temple Sinai family is something I truly enjoy.

During the High Holy Days, our greeters are not only there to check your RSVP for each service, but also to welcome you back home to Temple Sinai. Seeing that friendly face at each entrance is part of our commitment to inclusivity and belonging. By submitting your RSVP, you'll help us maintain our security protocols, as recommended by Secure Community Network. Thank you to Security Committee Chair Lee Bressler, for leading our volunteers through our usher/greeter SCN Security Trainings. Thank you to Tamie Bressler for coordinating our High Holy Day Ushers and Greeters, who play an essential role in the security process.

As we begin a new Jewish year, I am reminded of so many new accomplishments around Temple Sinai. In August, we launched our newly re-imagined Thursday's weekly email and bi-monthly Temple Bulletin. Thank you to Elisa Heisman of Red Pen Resources for her knowledge and creativity in helping us reshape Temple Sinai's forward-facing image. On Aug. 25, we launched our refreshed website, which is more intuitive and has a modern design. Check it out at the same url: templesinainola.com.

"It is always such a special time to watch our Sinai community come together--the embraces of multi-generations of family, long-time friends, and even new friends--observing the warm and welcoming atmosphere...is something I truly enjoy."

Our FEMA waterproofing project is on track to conclude on October 1. Knowing our building is safe from water intrusion through the brick, thrills me to no end.

Continuing my personal commitment to increased connection and engagement, I am proud to announce the addition of another Sinai Small Group – The Free Birds, targeting our ever-growing empty-nesters population. If you self-identify as an empty-nester, please join our first event, A Night in Paris, on Tuesday, October 21 at 6:30PM at the new French restaurant, Le Moyne Bistro, 746 Tchoupitoulas St. Please see inside this issue for more information about all our Sinai Small Groups!

Wishing you a happy, healthy 5786 and a good sweet New Year.

From the President

Greetings, Temple Sinai!

As I write this, summer is officially over, school is back in session (thankfully!), and the High Holidays are just around the corner. Soon, we'll be gathering in our Sanctuary for the high point of our Jewish Calendar. This is an extraordinarily busy time for our Rabbi, Cantor, Executive Director, and all who work so hard to make the High Holidays possible. I cannot thank them enough for all their hard work to make this experience at Sinai both meaningful and memorable.

The Board, too, has been busy. In late August, we held our annual retreat here at Temple. We talked a lot about how to better serve our members, strengthen engagement across generations, and ensure Sinai is a welcoming place for all. One clear takeaway was the importance of being visible and approachable. During the High Holidays, as in years past, Board Members will be wearing name tags so you can easily find us. We're here because we care deeply about our community, and we want to hear from you. If you see a Board Member at services, programs, or around the building, please say hello. Your ideas and feedback make us better.

During our Board Retreat, we also set priorities for the coming year:

- Expanding learning and community programming.
- Refining communication so members know what's happening and how to get involved.
- Building partnerships with local organizations to strengthen our connections beyond Sinai.

Matt Glodowski

"Whether you grew up at Sinai or just joined, your involvement matters. Come to a program, join a committee, or bring a friend to a Shabbat service or special event. Every act of participation helps keep our congregation strong and connected."

These priorities depend on all of us. Whether you grew up at Sinai or just joined, your involvement matters. Come to a program, join a committee, or bring a friend to a Shabbat service or special event. Every act of participation helps keep our congregation strong and connected.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I want to thank you for all of your support and the trust you place in us to guide the synagogue forward. Serving in this role is both a responsibility and a privilege, and I am continually inspired by the dedication of my fellow Board Members and the generosity of our community.

I look forward to seeing you at services, on campus, and at all the wonderful programs we have planned.

Shanah Tovah,
Matt

Legacy Giving at Temple Sinai

Your Values. Your Temple. Your Legacy.

I made the decision to add Temple Sinai as a beneficiary in my will, because I believe in the contributions we make to Jewish life in New Orleans. With so many worthy organizations here, I hope you will join me in adding Temple Sinai to your estate plan.

The High Holy Days are the perfect time of year to reflect on your Jewish life and how you want to pay it forward. If you are someone who has been putting off your planned giving arrangements for "someday," think about taking the next step and light the way for the next generation.

"With so many worthy organizations here, I hope you will join me in adding Temple Sinai to your estate plan."

What is Legacy Giving?

A legacy gift is a meaningful way to convey your values to future generations by making a provision in your will or estate plans to remember Temple Sinai. Because every family's situation is unique, there is no minimum pledge to participate. Every legacy gift, regardless of the amount, is greatly valued and will be treated with care. All legacy gifts will qualify the individual donor for membership in the Eternal Light Society.

Frequently Asked Questions

Do I need to give you money now and can I change my mind?

This is your gift and your opportunity to 'light the way' for future generations of Temple Sinai. We are asking you to commit to giving a particular amount as part of your will or estate plans. You can change your mind at any time. Please consult an estate planning attorney for further guidance.

How will Temple Sinai use the funds?

Legacy gifts will be used to extend the support you have provided Temple Sinai during your lifetime and guarantee that your commitment will continue to be a light for the future. The funds will be used to secure the future of Temple Sinai and are directed towards the Endowment. However, you may designate your gift for a special purpose.

Sinai Youth

We are excited to announce that Chavurah@Sinai is beginning another joyful year filled with learning, friendship, and Jewish growth. Very soon, our classrooms will be buzzing with energy as students dive into new opportunities, reconnect with beloved traditions, and embrace a few exciting changes along the way.

WHAT'S NEW

New Faces on Our Team – This year, we are delighted to welcome several new teachers, along with our returning faculty and dedicated madrichim (teen assistants). Their creativity, enthusiasm, and commitment are already bringing a fresh spirit to our school community.

ISJL Curriculum – We are introducing the Institute of Southern Jewish Life curriculum, which brings high-quality Jewish learning while giving teachers the freedom to make each lesson engaging and personal.

KICKING OFF THE YEAR

We started with our Back-to-School Splash on August 24 – complete with a 19-foot waterslide, foam machine, and plenty of bagels from our friends at Bayou Bagels. It was a wonderful chance for families to reconnect and for our children to return to their Jewish home at Temple Sinai.

Our first day of Religious School is Sunday, September 7, beginning at 9:00AM with T’filah (prayer service). Each week, parents will also be invited to gather in the lobby at 10:45AM for Parent Connection with bagels – strengthening adult friendships while our kids strengthen theirs.

We are proud that Temple Sinai’s Religious School is tuition-free this year (thanks to a generous grant from the Arthur Blank Family Foundation), ensuring that every family has access to Jewish learning. If you know of a family who might want to join our community, please encourage them to reach out.

Touro & Sinai Temple Youth Group

We are so excited to start another year of programs, events, and activities for TASTY—our high school youth group! Last year was a wonderful year with increased activity and participation by our 9-12th grade students. We look forward to building on that success and helping TASTY grow in 2025-26 by offering fun, meaningful, and relevant opportunities for our Jewish high schoolers.

Brotherhood News

Hello Temple Sinai Brotherhood,

We had a great welcome back weekend on August 24! Bingo was a smashing hit, beating last year's fundraising levels. Most of our amazing prizes were donated by Where Y'at magazine, and we enjoyed food from the famous Central City BBQ. Thank you to those who attended and sponsored the event, and we look forward to seeing you again next year, possibly again in the Spring for another bingo event.

Next up for Brotherhood is the Sukkah Build on Sunday, October 5 at 9:00AM, which will once again involve a delicious breakfast, fun activity, and will be streamlined through our new and improved instruction manual. We are also excited to begin planning a clergy lunch for later this Fall.

I look forward to seeing you at Temple for the High Holy Days and all of the wonderful programming that's happening this month.

Sinai Tzedek - High Holy Day Food Drive

Non-perishable food collection

To fulfill the mitzvah of feeding the hungry, we are collecting unopened, non-perishable food for the Broadmoor Food Pantry during the High Holy Days and through October. We appreciate any canned foods, dried goods, pantry staples, and cereal boxes for families in need. Our collection bin is in the Temple lobby.

The rising cost of food, housing, and utilities, coupled with high unemployment and low-wage jobs have increased the need for emergency food assistance.

Or consider a direct donation to the Social Justice Fund, which will be forwarded to :

A Message from

Hebrew Rest Cemetery Association:

Since 1881, Temple Sinai and Touro Synagogue have cooperated to meet the burial needs of congregants and others in the New Orleans Jewish community. The two synagogues own Hebrew Rest Cemetery Association, which operates the three Hebrew Rest Cemeteries in Gentilly and Dispersed of Judah Cemetery on Canal Street.

The cemeteries are sacred places of remembrance, honoring our loved ones and preserving our community's history. To fulfill our mission to care for these cemeteries in perpetuity, we need your support.

Many of you and your families have purchased perpetual care for the grounds of individual burial spaces. Beyond our perpetual care obligations, we must maintain and repair all of the property, including lawns, shrubbery, sidewalks, and fences. We also have many graves of indigents and persons who were buried before perpetual care was offered. We are fortunate to have land for expansion, which requires investment to develop.

Please consider making a gift to sustain this meaningful legacy. Your kindness helps us honor the past and safeguard the future. Gifts may be made by check to us at 6227 St. Charles Ave., NOLA 70118 or at our website at www.HebrewRest.org.

The cemeteries are open for visitation every day except Saturday from 8:30AM until approximately 5:00 PM. Security is provided at Hebrew Rest from 10:00AM until 2:00PM every Sunday. The cemeteries are closed on major Jewish holidays.

Sincerely,

Hebrew Rest Cemetery Association, Inc.

A Benefit of Your Temple Sinai Membership

A benefit of your Temple Sinai membership is the ability to buy interment rights at the "member-rate" for you, your immediate family, and their families.

While its predecessors date back as far as 1827, the Association was formed as a non-profit organization in 1959. The Association owns and operates Dispersed of Judah Cemetery at 4937 Canal Street and Hebrew Rest 1, 2, and 3 at Pelopidas and Elysian Fields. ## Mission Statement

Temple Sinai of New Orleans is a warm and welcoming Reform Jewish congregation founded in 1870. We are an inclusive and diverse community engaging our members through worship, building connections from generation to generation, providing opportunities for Jewish learning, and serving our greater community. Temple Sinai is where tradition meets the modern Jewish world.
